

In July we shipped a Lead Sieve Plate manufactured for Thomas Jefferson National Accelerator Facility, to be used as a collimator in conjunction with a continuous electron beam detector package.

This item was made from 99.9% pure lead, and weighed 238 lbs.